'The General' Here Tuesday

A famous Civil War locomotive will come chugging into Pamplin and Appomattox on Tuesday. "The General", stolen on April 12, 1862, at Big Shanty, Ga., by a Union secret agent and 19 raiders, was recaptured after a thrilling eight hour chase by its conductor, engineer, and shop foreman.

The "General's" schedule: Pamplin, 11:45 a.m. to 12:05 p. m. Appomattox, 12:50 to 3 p.m. The 160 year - old locomotive reconditioned by the Louisville and Nashille Railroad, is now an oil burner, though originally it burned wood; later, coal. Today, in the diesel age, the L. & N. and N. & W. have no water tanks along the line, so while on tour, local fire departments supply the General's water requirments. Oil merely furnishes the heat to produce steam for the antique locomotive.

Coach 605 which composes the General's train, has been converted into a miniature museum illustrating more than a century of railroading.

Seventh - Day Adventist Church
Dr. David Ruggles, of Lascassas, Tenn., was guest speaker at the Appomattox Adventist Church May 18. Addressing the 11:00 o'clock service he discussed Medical Missionary Temperance and Welfare Work, which was based upon scripture texts found in Matt 25:31-46.

Dr. Ruggles is both a medical doctor and a missionary he believes according to the scriptures given to the medical work and the ministery go hand in hand, and all church members may become missionaries. We do not have to be professionals to perform the many helpful deeds mentioned in Matt 25. Christ the founder of this work and our example was such and any good was considered a merit human by the majority in His day.

He said "This kind of work is not to be limited to helping our church members only but is designed to aid anyone in need just as Jesus said in verse 45 "Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me."

The purpose of Dr. Ruggles visit was to help promote this kind of work. He gave an outline of the work and how it is to be accomplished. No. 1 Caring for the sick. No. 2 Helping the victims of intemperance. No. 3 By sharing with the unfortunate, clothing the needy, feeding the hungry. No. 4 Visiting those in hospitals in prisons, comforting those sad lonely and afflicted. No. 5 Teaching people how to do for themselves.

Dr. Ruggles has been successful in this work in Mass, Conn., and various other places for many years.
